

SOUTHERN
NEW ENGLAND
CHAPTER

Soil and Water Conservation Society

ANNUAL MEETING

Tuesday, August 22 (12 - 1 p.m. EST)

Join the Southern New England Chapter of the Soil and Water Conservation Society for our 2023 virtual Annual Meeting.

Our featured speaker is SWCS Communications Coordinator Emma Harper, who will describe the benefits of membership and upcoming SWCS programming. On this Zoom call, we'll also discuss upcoming SNEC events, recap our year, and take care of business matters such as announcing the results of our 2023 Board of Directors Election.

This meeting is open to all who are:

- Interested in learning more about the Chapter and the Society
- Would like to provide feedback about our upcoming events and projects
